

Ex-witch exposes how witches use the 4 spiritual laws to block your midnight prayers

Summary of the Document:

The document is a personal testimony from Grace Naka, a former witch from Nakuru, Kenya, who claims to expose four spiritual laws that witches allegedly use to block or neutralize Christians' midnight prayers. After her deliverance through Jesus Christ, she now reveals these "secrets" so believers can pray effectively.

The Four Spiritual Laws Exploited by Witches:

1. The Law of Agreement

- Based on Matthew 18:19 and Amos 3:3 ("Can two walk together except they be agreed?").
- Spiritual power is released through alignment/agreement.
- Witches cause believers to unconsciously agree with fear, doubt, anger, bitterness, or discouragement (e.g., through offenses or negative thoughts before prayer).
- Once a believer's heart aligns with darkness, their prayers lose power even if their words are fervent.

2. The Law of Substitution

- Demons can legally exchange one person's destiny, blessing, or virtue for another's curse or corruption.
- Done through objects (charms, mirrors, gifts), names, or dreams.
- Example: Using a spiritual mirror to substitute a praying man's purity with immorality, causing his prayers to lose authority.
- Solution: Destroy strange objects, sanctify the home, plead the blood of Jesus.

3. The Law of Territory

- Spiritual authority is territorial; land, homes, or locations can be under demonic gatekeepers due to past rituals, blood shed, etc.
- Prayers in defiled territories are resisted or return void (ref. Daniel 10 – Prince of Persia).
- Believers must verbally reclaim their space and declare Christ's lordship before praying.

4. The Law of Sacrifice

- Power in the spirit realm comes through sacrifice (blood, fasting, commitment).
- A witch's blood sacrifice (e.g., animal) can outweigh casual, undisciplined prayers.
- A believer's living sacrifice (fasting, consecration, giving up comfort) releases greater authority because the blood of Jesus speaks better than animal blood.

Core Message:

Many midnight prayers go unanswered not because God is weak, but because believers pray "illegally" — violating or ignoring these spiritual laws, thereby giving witches legal ground to block or redirect the prayers. Practical Advice Before Midnight Prayer:

1. Forgive and release all offenses (close door to wrong agreement).
2. Sanctify your body, home, and environment (remove strange objects).
3. Reclaim your territory by declaring Jesus' ownership.
4. Offer real sacrifice (fasting, discipline, cost) — don't pray casually.

The document ends with a repentance/renunciation prayer and encouragement to share the message widely.

Tone: Urgent, dramatic, and testimonial; presents witchcraft as highly organized and legally precise in the spirit realm, while urging Christians to pray with knowledge and spiritual strategy.

Message:

My name is Grace Naka from Nakuru, Kenya. And once upon a time I walked in darkness as a witch. For years, I was part of a hidden spiritual network, a system that understood something. Many believers still overlook that the spirit realm operates by laws, not emotions, not volume, not tears. I watched Christians cry, shout, groan, carry prayer books, sweat through Midnight intercessions, yet leave those same prayers untouched, unfulfilled, unanswered. Not because God ignored them, but because witches like I once was, had already applied certain spiritual laws that blocked their results before they even began praying. We didn't always need to attack directly. Sometimes we simply used the laws of the spirit to turn their own prayers against them. A believer can be powerful, but a believer praying without understanding is vulnerable.

After my deliverance through Jesus Christ, I vowed that every secret I once used against Christians would be exposed law by law so that every believer who rises at midnight will rise with understanding authority and fire. Let owning the law of agreement. This law is ancient and universal. It states that whatever to align with or agree on becomes established whether in the kingdom of light or in the kingdom of darkness. Jesus revealed this in Matthew Eighteens and nine 90. If two of you shall agree on earth as touching anything, it shall be done, but which is twist. The same principle when I was in darkness, we gathered in circles before midnight not to talk, but to synchronize energy, intention, emotion, and focus. This created an unspoken agreement. We knew that if we could cause a believer to unconsciously agree with fear, anger, doubt, bitterness, or discouragement, then no matter how loudly they prayed, their spirit was already aligned with us. I remember a woman in Nakuru named Miriam. Every midnight she prayed for her husband's deliverance. Her prayers were sincere. But every night before she prayed, we made sure someone offended her. A painful phone call, a harsh message, a sudden disappointment. By 12:00 AM she was still angry and her heart agreed with bitterness. Her mouth prayed, but her spirit partnered with the wrong kingdom.

We didn't need to stop her prayer. The law of agreements stopped her for us. Another case was a pastor's daughter. Minutes before midnight, we planted a whisper in her mind. You are wasting your time. The moment she accepted that thought agreement formed, her prayer power died before her lips opened. And most 3, 7 3 asks Can two walk together except they be agreed in the spirit realm. Agreement is not a conversation. It is alignment. Before you pray, check your heart, forgive, release, ask the Holy Spirit to align your emotions and thoughts with heaven. Because once your heart agrees with doubt, witches don't need to fight you. You have already fought yourself the law of substitution. This one is dangerous, and very few Christians truly understand it. In the demonic realm, we could exchange one destiny for another, one dream for another one person's blessing for another person's burden. If a believer prayed at midnight without spiritual covering or discernment, we could legally invoke substitution, especially through objects, mirrors, names or dreams. I once targeted a young man named Elijah in Kisumu. He prayed passionately against delay. But one night while he prayed, we used a spiritual mirror. We placed his face on the mirror, called his name and substituted his image with that of a man living in fornication.

From that day, Elijah's purity weakened His prayers lost. Sharpness, his authority faded. We substituted his virtue with corruption. Another example, a businesswoman in Mombasa prayed for breakthrough every night, but she kept a charm from her grandmother not knowing it was a spiritual channel. Each time she prayed, her spiritual energy was drawn away and transferred to someone. In our coven {witches sabbath}. She prayed, but someone else received in witchcraft. If we hold a legal object, we can legally substitute results. Genesis 27 shows substitution. Jacob taking Esau's blessing. Isaiah 43 and four says, I will give men in exchange for you. Before you pray, sanctify your home, destroy strange objects, burn ungodly gifts, charms or jewelry. Pray. Be the blood of Jesus. No evil exchange shall stand in my life.

The law of territory, which craft understand stands something many believers forget. Authority is territorial. Every piece of land, every home, every building, every time zone has spiritual gatekeepers. Some belong to God. Others have been claimed by darkness. Many midnight prayers fail not because the words lack power, but because the territory resists them. There was a street in elate where every Christian who held night prayers fell sick or confused. Years earlier, human blood had been pour into a gutter. There the land was claimed until it was cleansed. The law of territory held legal power. At a boarding school where I operated, many girls prayed at midnight, but we had possessed a particular classroom. Any girl who prayed there became sleepy, distracted, or confused why we were landlords of that space spiritually. In Daniel 10, the angel said The Prince of Persia resisted him territorial warfare. Psalm 24 says, the earth is the Lords, but it must be reclaimed. Before you pray, walk through your home. Declare the territory belongs to Jesus and knowing your doors speak. Ownership, say no. Strange power rules here. This land is under the lordship of Christ.

Until you reclaim the ground, your prayers may rise, but return unanswered because the gate remains closed. Do for you are the law of sacrifice. This is the most powerful and most misunderstood law. Every kingdom light or darkness moves through sacrifice, which is gained spiritual power through blood sacrifice. The louder the sacrifice, the stronger the access. If we could make a believer pray without sacrifice, no fasting, no discipline, no commitment, their prayers carried little weight. Once in a shrine near Naasha, I was assigned to silence a pastor's midnight prayer group. We couldn't stop their meetings physically. So every week we sacrificed a goat in the spirit. Real, the voice of that blood cried louder than their prayers. But one night, one pastor began to fast, seriously, a living sacrifice. His prayer suddenly broke through because the blood of the living outshines the blood of the dead. Another example, a mother in Nairobi woke at 3:00 AM to pray for her sick child, but she prayed half asleep, weak and casual. Meanwhile, her neighbor, a witch, offered incense and fasted at the same hour. The law of sacrifice empowered the witch more than the casual believer. Sacrifice is authority. Psalm 15 and five says, gather my saints, those who made a covenant with me by sacrifice.

Hebrews 1224 reminds us the blood of Jesus speaks better things. Let your prayers cost you something, your sleep, your comfort, your time, your offering, which is understand this law. Don't let them out sacrifice you pH war in, in and pH far. When I left witchcraft, I realized something painful. Many Christians pray but pray illegally. They shout against darkness, but leave doors open. They bind demons, but ignore the laws that give demons access. The four laws, agreement, substitution, territory sacrifice are not inventions of witchcraft. They are spiritual systems, which is only exploit what believers ignore.

So tonight, when you rise to pray:

1. forgive before you fight.
2. sanctify before you speak.
3. reclaim your territory before you declare
4. Sacrifice before you expect results, then the enemy will have no legal ground to block your midnight prayers.

Ex-witch exposes how witches use the 4 spiritual laws to block your midnight prayers

Repeat this prayer:

Father, in the name of Jesus, I break every evil agreement I entered. Knowingly or unknowingly. I revoke every demonic substitution of my destiny. I reclaim my territory by the blood of Jesus. I declare that my prayers shall pierce the heavens my life, my home, and my generation belong to you.

Lord, let every altar speaking against my midnight prayers be silenced now. In Jesus' name, amen.

If you have struggled to pray at midnight, don't give up. It means the enemy fears who you are about to become. Share this message with someone who needs light. Let's awaken a generation that prays with knowledge and wins legally in the spirit realm.
