

From Genesis to Revelation: Who God Is

Genesis: God is faithful to His promises and sovereign over creation.
Exodus: God is powerful to deliver and desires to dwell among His people.
Leviticus: God is holy and calls His people to be holy.
Numbers: God is patient, even when His people complain or wander.
Deuteronomy: God is a covenant-keeping God who desires wholehearted love.
Joshua: God is a warrior who brings His people into their promised inheritance.
Judges: Even in rebellion, God is merciful and raises up deliverers.
Ruth: God redeems and restores, even through brokenness.
1 Samuel: God sees the heart, not just outward appearance.
2 Samuel: God's mercy triumphs over judgment through repentance.
1 Kings: God alone is the true King and deserves our worship.
2 Kings: God is just and faithful, even when nations fall.
1 Chronicles: God remembers covenant and honors faithful worship.
2 Chronicles: When His people humble themselves, God heals their land.
Ezra: God stirs hearts to rebuild what was broken.
Nehemiah: God strengthens His people to do great things despite opposition.
Esther: God is present and working, even when unseen.
Job: God is sovereign in suffering and worthy of trust.
Psalms: God is our refuge, strength, and ever-present help.
Proverbs: God gives wisdom to those who seek Him.
Ecclesiastes: God alone gives true meaning to life.
Song of Songs: God delights in covenant love and intimacy.
Isaiah: God is holy, just, and our Redeemer.
Jeremiah: God weeps for His people and offers new hearts.
Lamentations: God's mercies are new every morning.
Ezekiel: God restores life to dry bones and brings renewal.
Daniel: God reigns over kings and kingdoms forever.
Hosea: God's love pursues us even when we're unfaithful.
Joel: God promises to pour out His Spirit on all flesh.
Amos: God demands justice and righteousness.
Obadiah: God humbles the proud and defends His people.
Jonah: God is compassionate, even toward those we struggle to love.
Micah: God requires justice, mercy, and a humble walk.
Nahum: God is a refuge, yet just against evil.
Habakkuk: God's plans are perfect, even when we don't understand.
Zephaniah: God rejoices over His people with singing.
Haggai: God calls us to prioritize His house above our own.
Zechariah: God restores and reigns as King over all.
Malachi: God desires wholehearted worship and honors those who fear Him.
Matthew: Jesus is the promised Messiah, God with us.
Mark: Jesus is the servant-King who came to give His life.
Luke: Jesus brings salvation to all, especially the outcast.
John: Jesus is the Son of God who gives eternal life.
Acts: God empowers believers with His Spirit to spread the Gospel.

Romans: God justifies sinners by grace through faith.
1 Corinthians: God builds His church in love and power.
2 Corinthians: God's strength is made perfect in weakness.
Galatians: God sets us free to live by the Spirit.
Ephesians: God unites all things in Christ.
Philippians: God gives joy and peace in every circumstance.
Colossians: Christ is supreme and sufficient in all things.
1 Thessalonians: God will return for His faithful people.
2 Thessalonians: God is just and will repay evil.
1 Timothy: God's truth shapes His church and leaders.
2 Timothy: God calls us to stand firm in sound doctrine.
Titus: God's grace trains us for godly living.
Philemon: God restores relationships through Christ.
Hebrews: Jesus is our perfect High Priest and sacrifice.
James: Faith without works is dead - live out your belief.
1 Peter: God gives grace to endure suffering.
2 Peter: God's Word is sure, and He delays judgment in mercy.
1 John: God is love, and we are His children.
2 John: Walk in truth and love.
3 John: Be faithful and support the work of God.
Jude: God keeps us from falling and will present us blameless.
Revelation: God wins. Jesus is coming soon to reign forever.